What I intend to cover:

- The history of BONUS+ and how it works in the background
- How BONUS+ will work for our requestors
- Implementation at Victoria University

History of BONUS

- 2 year research study in resource sharing
- sponsored by UNISON (NSW)
UTS, University of Newcastle, UNSW,
CSU
- first INNReach system in Australia
- first combining III and Ex Libris systems
live July 20, 2005 with UNEWC, UTS,

HARDWARE

- 2 dedicated servers
- central INNReach and DCB (Direct Consortial Borrower) for Ex Libris systems
- located, maintained at University of Newcastle

Central union catalogue

- each library profiles records to contribute
- monographs, some AV, no high use material
- no serials or order records (BONUS decision)
- one master bibliographic record per title
- algorithm determines master record
- institutional holdings added to bib records

Central union catalogue

- uploaded automatically to central catalogue
- overlay existing bibliographic records
- BONUS creates new bib record if no match

Requesting

- available to all staff, students of participating libraries
- unmediated requesting - clients place requests directly online
- system selects an available copy
- clients select registered institution, pickup location
- clients authorised in verification screen

Searching BONUS

- button on local OPACs carries search across to BONUS
- search BONUS catalogue directly
- <http://bonus.newcastle.edu.au/>

BONUS+

combined holdings of books from the Libraries of Deakin University, Murdoch University, the University of Ballarat, the University of Melbourne, the University of Newcastle, the University of Technology Sydney and Victoria University.

NEWS: Welcome to Massey University, our first international partner in BONUS+!

Student feedback

- I am a student at UTS and have used the Bonus system to get 2 books, 1 from CSU and 1 from Newcastle Uni. It is a wonderful system, congratulations.
- This catalogue is fantastic. Fast loading. Great system. Appreciations!!
- BONUS works very well and is a great idea. (Newcastle) Thanks :)

Any questions???
